JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE PARDON TRADE.

A Southern Radical, Mr. Stokes, has the credit of offering a bill in the House on Monday to put an end to the infamous pardon traffic, compared to which the traffic in cadetships is a mere two penny trade. It is retail, the former is wholesale. Bills are constantly slipped through Congress containing many thousand names of obscure, insignificant, harmless people, who have been bullied into buying certificates and pardons. It is as if twenty pages of a city directory were torn out at random and stuck into an act of Congress. A recent bill had three thousand names in it. The whole thing stinks with extortion and fraud. For awhile, some form of exhibiting the cases was gone through, but this was found to give the public too clear an insight into the business. We made some extracts from the Congressional Globe that served to expose the system:

Here, for instance, are the duly purchased certificates from the proper Radical certifiers in the cases of two old men, who are declared to be entirely innocent! Why then in the name of law, decency and common sense are they forced to buy certificates and pardons?

I took no part in the late war, being of that age which exempted me from military service, &c.

ROBERT CAWTHORN.

From my personal acquaintance with Mr. Cawthorn, I have full confidence in his statements, and recommend the removal of his disabilities.

C. D. HUBBARD.

I concur in the above statement of the Hon. C. D. Hubbard,

J. J. GRAVELY.

I can, with much confidence, recommend for release from disability Robert Cawthron, of Virginia. He was exempt from military duty at the commencement of the rebellion, and had no connection with it.

JOSEPH SEGAR.

Mr. Ira D. Garrett is seventy six years old, was elected Clerk of the County Court in 1831, and Clerk of the Circuit Court of Albemarle in 1852, and has continued to act in each Court till the present time. He gave no support to the rebellion other than sympathy, which was carried out by feeding the hungry soldiers and attending to the wants of the sick. He is now a Republican, and endorses the reconstruction policy of Congress.

C. L. THOMPSON,
Member of Convention, Chairman of Republican Committee, Albemarle county.

JAMES T. L. TAYLOR, J. P.
Member of Constitutional Convention.

The Democratic members being in favor of a general amnesty, have not interfered to prevent this partial approach to it. But the infamous extortion of which it is the means, is too obvious to need any investigation to expose it. How men are bullied into buying these pardons, was lately shown by Mr. Trumbull, the Republican Senator of Illinois, in his speech, exposing the infamies practiced in Georgia. Here is a part of the evidence presented by him:

State of Georgia, Fulton county:

I, John H. Penland, Representative elect, from the county of Union, do solemnly swear that I appeared in the city of Atlanta, on the 10th day of January last, in obedience to the proclamation of his Excellency Governor Bullock, for the purpose, and with the intention of qualifying under the late act of Congress, as a member of the Legislature, feeling that I could conscientiously take the oath first in order named in said act, and should have proceeded at once to qualify under said act, but from the following facts: I was approached near the door of the Representative hall by a Secretary of the Executive Department, and told that if I proceeded to take the oath, that I would certainly be prosecuted at once for perjury. I was at the same time, and by the same party, informed that if I would omit the taking of the oath, and sign an application for pardon already drawn up in blank, asking Congress to remove my disabilities, that I would be relieved in from five to ten days, and permitted to take my seat as a member. Under the influence of fright and anxiety to avoid the annoyance of a criminal prosecution, although perfectly satisfied that I had no disabilities under the law, and feeling that I could fully and freely take the oath, I, nevertheless, signed said application. I am now sixty-nine years of age, and never had a suit in court in my life, and was induced to omit taking the oath mentioned simply for the purpose of avoiding a criminal prosecution, and not from any sense of guilt or want ability to take the oath, and am now, after reflection and due deliberation, ready and willing to take and subscribe said oath in terms of the act.

JOHN H. PENLAND,

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 14th day of February, 1870.

THOMAS SPENCER, J. P.

We repeat it: the trade in cadetships was but petty retail rascality compared with the wholesale villainy of this pardon traffic, in the interest of which all attempts at a general amnesty are resisted.—Phil. Age.

Washington Correspondence Cincinnati Commercial.

DON PIATT ON GENERAL GRANT.

"It is hard to relize, but the trouble with Grant is his intense, stolid ignorance. Fitch called on him the other day, for example, to learn if possible why C. C. Wilson, Chief Justice of Utah, was removed. Grant told him, without blinking, because Governor Shaffer had requested it. Fitch asked him if Governor Shaffer controlled the offices of the Territory, and Grant responded that he certainly did; that no Governor could be expected to accomplish anything unless he had harmony in his staff. Fitch is not easily disconcerted, but this notion, coming from the President, that a Chief Justice of a Territory is a staff officer to a Governor, upset him to such an extent that he could say nothing.

I give this as a specimen of the comment indulged in by prominent members of a party that put General Grant in power. There is no use attempting to conceal or deny the fact, the President does not command either the respect nor confidence of his party. We never had a Chief Magistrate so low in the estimation of those who knew him best as this one is in the minds of men immediately about him. He is generally set down as one not possessed of sense enough to sustain his position, and no sense of propriety whatever. As that diplomatic jump Thornton is reported to have said:

"Well you see, he is no gentleman—rather good sort of man, but no gentleman, you know."

"But, Mr Thornton," remonstrated the individual addressed, "you forget that he is a West Pointer."

"That makes no manner of difference—that I can see. West Point can't make a gentleman, you know."

WILL THEY CROKS HIM OFF?

The insincerity of the Radical party towards our colored fellow citizens is becoming more and more palpable. The colored voters in North Carolina constitute three fourths of the Radical party. According to Radical principles, the colored voters are entitled to three fourths of all the offices, where there are Radical incumbents. And yet there is no chance for a colored man to get office among the Radicals, small or large, unless they are forced to give it to them from fear the colored people will abandon their party.

The colored voters in the first, second, third and fourth Congressional Districts of this State, were justly entitled to the Radical nominations for Congress. They were cheated out of them except in this District, (the fourth.) James H. Harris was too keen to be bamboozled out of it here, or he would have been thrown overboard, as in the other Districts.

Even since his nomination, it is believed constant efforts have been made to persuade him off or buy him off, to allow "rotating Dick" to take the field, or some other white faced scalawag. We are told the party is greatly stirred up in Washington City about it. They say that seating Revels in the Senate, is about to destroy the party, and if James Harris and other black are allowed to go to Congress, it will ruin them! Well then they deserve to be ruined. The colored Radicals are entitled to it, and they ought to have it.

James Harris has just returned from Washington. We have not heard whether he has consented to be driven from the field or not. Harris injured himself greatly among his colored friends two years ago, when he backed down for Dewese. He deserved the condemnation of his colored friends. If he backs down now, he is done for, forever. His chances for political promotion for himself and his race are 50 per cent. better now, if the colored people will not yield the point, than they ever can be again. It is a matter of no concern to us what course he takes, but as a matter of simple justice to the colored people, we contend that Harris or one of his color is as much entitled to the Radical nomination for Congress from this District, as they are to any dollar they ever worked for or any price of property for which they have paid.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE--RADICAL FALSEHOODS.

The colored people of North Carolina have been deceived and misled long enough, by Radical deception and falsehood. Conservatives and Democrats should undeceive them.

It has been rung in the ears of the colored people until they believe it, that the Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina, would reduce the colored people to slavery again, if they get into power—that they would take away their rights of voting, of equality before the law, and infringe their personal liberty.

Radical carpet baggers and scalawags know this to be false when they utter it.—They know that if the Democrats get into power, they have no will or desire to do this. They know that it is impossible to do it, even if they desire it.

The Democrats and Conservatives declare in their official declarations and in their public and private conversations, that the colored people are free men like themselves, that they have rights which they are bound and are ready to respect. The colored people know that their best real friends in the South, are the white Democrats and Conservatives and their former owners. If the colored people want work, or favors done them, to whom do they go? If they want justice done them, do they call upon Radical or Democratic lawyers to help them? If they are in trouble, to whom do they go for counsel and friendship? Who pay them best for their labor? Who help them when they are sick? Who shows an honest, upright colored person most respect? When colored officers do their duty and prove that they are good men, who stands to their backs, but Conservatives and Democrats?

MAD, AND "GOING FOR BLOOD."

We admit to our columns to day a communication from "Medicus," who makes the suggestion that the Governor may be mad, or more properly speaking, crazy. We have heard the suggestion before it was made by this correspondent.

Instances are not wanting, even within the recollection of those now living, of men continuing to perform official functions in a state of dementia.

George the third of England was known to be deranged long before the affairs of the kingdom were placed in the hands of the Prince Regent.

Byron was also thought to be affected at least by a monomania.

Randolph was certainly crazy when he called for red ink to write a check, at the same time declaring that he "went for blood." About this time Randolph declared he would not go to England until he could sail from a Southern port. "I will not," said he, "give my money to those who are ready to make my negroes cut my throat." His conduct upon other occasions confirmed many in the opinion that he was mad.

The excitement incidental to the settlement of the Missouri question, which well nigh rent the Union asunder, was said to be the immediate cause of Randolph's insanity. Excessive watching and anxiety on that perplexing question, set the mysteriously wrought machinery of his mind to whirling and dashing in mad disorder, "defying for the time," says Garland, "the controlling influence of the master's will. When this question which so excited the brain of Mr. Randolph, was settled, his mental facualties were again brought under the control of his will.

Governor Holden has had more to excite and disorder his mind than John Randolph ever had; besides this, he is a man of equally nervous temperament, and after an exciting campaign, he has been forced to seek quiet and repose by going to bed.

"Mr. Randolph's mind," says his biographer, "had been wrought up to the highest pitch of fervor, and like a highly charged electric battery, threw off brilliant and fiery sparks that scorched and burned the incautious persons who approached too near." If Gov. Holden's mind is disordered and wandering, as was the great Randolph's, he is more to be pitied than blamed.

We recommend to our Eastern friends, a careful perusal and consideration of the following truthful and sensible article which we take from the columns of the Wilmington Star:

It is not necessary that in directing our attention to the fight for the Legislature, we shall overlook or underestimate the value of the success of our general ticket. We can best promote the triumph of the general ticket by zealously laboring, everywhere for the local ticket, and, in turn, every blow struck in behalf of Judge Shipp's election will react in favor of our candidates for the Legislature. There is no possible conflict of interest between the two objects of electing Judge Shipp and securing a majority in the Assembly. In every county we should have a strong local ticket, and work for them as zealously in those counties which are hopelessly Radical, as if we were confident of success. Such a course will have the effect of awakening public interest in behalf of the general cause.

It is a sad mistake to suppose that Eastern North Carolina has not just as imperative a duty to perform in this contest, as has any other section of the State. We rely upon our friends in the West to win the Legislature, but they have a right to expect all the aid that we can render. Their enthusiasm should excite our warm interest, and in proportion as we shall exhibit resolution and spirit, they will be stimulated to increased effort. Waiving the possibility of carrying counties in the East, which we have, perhaps too readily, surrendered to Radical control, we must remember that in any event the support of every county in the East is necessary to secure the election of Judge Shipp. We can and ought to, elect both a majority of the Legislature, and our candidate for Attorney General, but failing in the one, we shall have no excuse for a double failure. Radical gerrymandering may possibly defeat us, by a small majority, in the Legislative contest, but it cannot touch the general result in the State at large.

The election of Judge Shipp, in August, by one thousand majority, will signify ten times that majority in the next succeeding contest, and will place beyond peradventure our supremacy in future Legislatures. Radicalism in North Carolina will not survive its first serious disaster. The moral effect of a majority for the general ticket, no matter how small, will secure the good old ship in Conservative moorings for all time.

We cannot elect Judge Shipp without an earnest and unanimous support from the party in the East. The West will give unprecedented majorities, but the Radical majorities in the East will neutralize them unless we determine to reduce them in every case and to annihilate them wherever it is possible. Eastern North Carolina can elect or defeat Judge Shipp, just as her Conservative voters shall determine. We cannot escape our responsibility. Do we cheerfully accept it, and are we prepared to do our whole duty?

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

A Conservative meeting held in Windsor, Bertie county, on Saturday the 18th days of June, 1870.

On motion, Mr. P. H. Winston was chosen Chairman and W. W. Cherry, Secretary.

After a brief but well pointed speech Mr. Winston took the chair, and the Convention proceeded to business.

On motion, the Chairman appointed delegates to the Edenton Convention, to wit: Jos. B. Cherry, S. R. Sprunt, David Watford, B. A. Capehart, G. W. Capehart, D C. Winston, John Wilson, James C. Freeman, John B. Gillam, James Bond, James Burden, E. R. Outlaw, George Gray, Dr. H. V. Dunstan, Dr Wm T. Sutton, Wm. T. Sutton, Jr., Thos. W. Thompson and John T. Bond, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

After several suggestions, Mr. John T. Bond moved to appoint a delegate from each township, to present to the meeting names of suitable persons to fill the respective offices for which they should be nominated.

The Committee made the following report, which was unanimously endorsed by the Convention:

For House of Commons—John T. Bond.
For Register of Deeds—Erasmus L. Simmons.
For County Surveyor, Jonathan J. Rhodes.
For County Commissioners—Jonathan S. Taylor, Wm. J. Cherry, Andrew J. Dunning, John Wilson and Wm. H. Taylor.
For Coroner—Jesse H. Bunch.

The Convention recommended James L. Mitchell to the District Convention for the Senate.

Mr. Bond, on hearing his name for the House of Commons, arose and declined the nomination, but would support any one the Convention should nominate.

Mr. Duncan C. Winston was unanimously nominated in his stead, and a Committee appointed to wait upon him, he came forward, and in a short but touching speech, accepted the nomidation.

Mr. Jas. L. Mitchell arose and thanked the Convention for the honor conferred in his recommendation, and stated that notwithstanding he had made up his mind not to be a candidate, if his nomination was as unanimous as his recommendation, he would cheerfully accept. And whether successful or not, he intended to so exhibit the record of our last representatives, and history of their party that will bring the blush of shame to the cheeks of their supporters. No resolutions were drafted, Mr. Jas B Cherry Chairman of the Committee reported that the Committee adopted as their platform the address written and published by the Conservative members of the last Legislature. Messrs. J. B. Cherry and James Bond addressed a few appropriate remarks for the occasion. It was moved that the proceedings be published in the Raleigh SENTINEL and Roanoke News. The meeting then adjourned.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN'S DOLEFUL CONDITION.

Intercession in behalf of the afflicted is a christian duty, and this alone is tendered as a sufficient justification, for interfering with your editorial policy. Article has followed article in the SENTINEL, violently assailing the motives and conduct of our truly loyal and patriotic Governor, and numberless acts and facts are cited to sustain you. Yet a calm and dispassionate consideration of the whole subject, leads to the conviction that you grossly err—for instead of rancorous malediction, he is entitled to the tenderest sympathy.

To the sedate mind, divested of partizan bias and political prejudice, the melancholy fact is glaringly perspicuous that the Governor is insane. The troubles incident to his exalted position—too exalted for his calibre—the failure of his hopes and plans, the miscarriage of his plots and well laid schemes, and the desertion of those upon whom he so surely relied, have disordered his intellect and suggested to his distempered mind, the ubiquitous existence and diabolical machinations of powerful but invisible foes numbering legions.

No sane mind gives the slightest credence to the universal or even general existence of a banded fraternity of evil demons, to whose agency all the crimes of the day may be readily ascribed—yet the Governor is solemnly impressed, Don Quixote like, that all his plans are thwarted, and his people oppressed by numberless invisible and trackless foes, fatally bent upon mischief. The multitude discern, that this is simply a delusion; a mere phantom of an excited and frenzied brain. It is impossible that such extensive ramifications of a lawless brotherhood should pervade the whole State, defying the vigilance not only of the people themselves, and their civil magistrates and officers, but even the secret detective force of the haunted Executive, ardently striving for their exposure. Yet all this the Governor most firmly and solemnly believe. Look but to his late manifesto; in every sentence of which the horrid Ku Klux is the all pervading, prominent, glaring spectre. The proclamation is a fair representation of the Governor's state of mind, his thoughts and incubrations; the reflex image of his brain with its ghostly tenants. A stranger to the truth, upon its perusal, would conceive the whole State as thoroughly encompassed with a novel species of evil genii, known as Ku Klux, and but for their malicious influences, our well disposed and benevolent Governor would enjoy a bliss ineffeign. When the truth is known, however, and it is seen how wide of it is the proclamation, written evidently with earnestness and sincerity, the conclusion becomes irresistible, that the Governor labors under some gross hallucination. And this view is powerfully confirmed, when we recur to military order No. 1, wherein he seriously proposes, by the aid of his Major General, Willie Jones, and his militia, garbished in all the pomp of war, to pursue and subdue these shadowy, trackless devils, who have heretofore so successfully baffled all other detective agencies.

Such conduct is only compatible with the patent fact, that the Governor raves, is delirious, rabid, mad. Such clearly would be the decision in a Court of law, if only his last will, written in such a state, were propounded and contested. The rule adopted for testing insanity is as follows:

"The true criterion is,—where there is delusion of mind, there is insanity; that is when persons believe things to exist, which exist only, or at least in that degree exist only, in their own imagination, and of the non-existence of which, neither argument nor proof can convince them, they are of unsound mind;" or as one of the counsel accurately expressed it—it is only the belief of facts, which no rational person would have believed—that is insane delusion.

This delusion may sometimes exist on one or two particular subjects, though generally there are other concomitant circumstances—such as eccentricity, irritability, violence, suspicion, exaggeration, inconsistency and other marks and symptoms, which may tend to confirm the existence of delusion and to establish its insane character."

Now here in Williams on Executors is an able opinion delivered in another case, but so exactly fitting and describing the Governor's, that one might suppose it was written with an especial eye to it.—As a conclusion of law, then, judging not only from the leading features, but from the "other concomitant circumstances" the Governor is clearly insane, even incompetent to make his will. What then should be done for his relief and restoration? How may the Devils be cast out, and his foaming at the mouth be cured? Not by reasonable appeals or by invective. His condition is lamentable indeed, and a great misfortune has befallen the State. He should be restrained not only from injuring himself and his friends, but especially restrained from entailing, under the impulses of such manifest madness, irreparable injuries upon the State.

GOLDSBORO', N. C., June 23, 1870.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—Dear Sir: A right amusing incident transpired this morning just before the departure of the excursion train for Morehead City. The parties were A. H. Galloway, col., of Wilmington, and one carpet bagger, Schenck, of Custom House notoriety, (who, Galloway says, was run away from the Custom House in New Orleans for stealing.) Schenck walked up to Galloway and told him that he heard he was going to Newbern to make a speech, and that if he, Galloway, did speak in Newbern, that he would tear him all to pieces. Galloway replied by telling Schenck, that he had no intention of making a speech whatever. Schenck told him that he did expect to go to Newbern to make a speech, and for no other purpose. Galloway again told him that that was not his intention, and that he thought he knew his business better than Mr. Schenck did.—Schenck then told Galloway he was a liar; whereupon Galloway rubbed his fist upon his nasal protuberance and told him that, if he would walk out of the Hotel office, he would whip him. He said that he had too much respect for the proprietors of the Hotel to whip such a man as Schenck in their house. He abused Schenck for everything that he could think of, which he took like a dog.

The difficulty started on account of Galloway's saying, that he would not support Dockery for Congress. He says that Dockery has "gone back on them," (the Republican party,) and that he will not support him for any office. Galloway says, that he will vote for Bob. Strange and do all he can against Dockery. Hip! Hip! Hurrah for Galloway!

Yours, in Great Hast, CONSERVATIVE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, some decidedly lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and united Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this state who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege, of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as I elect.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, so that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—In the absence of Rev. J. M. Atkinson from the city, Rev. Wm. E. Pell will fill his pulpit on Sunday next, at 11 o'clock.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The third quarterly meeting for the Raleigh Station of the M. E. Church, will be held to morrow, (Saturday) The Presiding Elder, Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, will preach on Sunday.

ROANOKE COLLEGE, SALEM, VA.—We have received a catalogue of this flourishing institution, now in charge of Rev. D. F. Bittle, D. D., as President, with a Faculty of eight Professors, men of reputation in the literary world.

The location of this school in the Valley of Virginia is one of great beauty and healthfulness, being in the vicinity of several mineral springs, and, the terms both for board and instruction are moderate.

THE ALLEGED KU KLUX CASE.—We mentioned hurriedly in our last issue, the arrest of four young men in this county, on a charge of disguising themselves, with three others, and whipping an old colored man, named Squire Holloway, and shamefully mistreating his wife.

The names of the parties are, Webster Sorrel, Taylor Pennington, Young Chapell and John Holderfield.

The examination of the parties was had before Mayor Harrison, acting as a Magistrate, yesterday evening after we went to press. The only witnesses examined were the colored man and his wife, Judy Holloway.

The man's evidence was, in substance, that on Saturday night last he was aroused by the barking of his dog and a knocking at the door, with a demand for the door to be opened. That his wife started to open the door, but before she could do so it was burst open and the crowd rushed in, but soon went out and called him and his wife into the yard. They then told his wife to go in, and took Squire to the Spring some hundred yards off, and each whipped him, one giving him ten, and the others five stripes each. They then took him back to the house, made him kindle a light, and then made his wife strip herself naked and ridiculed her, &c.

It was while they were at the house at this time that he says he discovered who the four arrested parties were. He knew Sorrell by seeing the side of his neck, by his "build" and his hight. This suggested to him who the others were, as they were always together. He stated they were all dressed in white with white cloths over their faces; but he did not see any of their faces.

His wife made the same statement up to their taking her husband off, and also in regard to their making her take off her clothes. She states that while they were gone to the spring with her husband, she heard a spiritual voice which told her not to be afraid, as it was some of their near neighbors, and she would not be hurt. She said the voice was like that which 'a mourner hears when he gets religion."—The voice came to her "from above."

The defendants offered no testimony, and they were each required to find bail in the sum of $2 000 to answer at Court an indictment for assault and battery, and were then turned over to the U. S. Marshall to be examined on a charge of "intimidating voters," as Squire said in his evidence, they asked him, while whipping him how he voted "two or three years ago."

If the parties are guilty they ought to suffer the penalty of the law; if not, they ought to be cleared.

The parties were examined before U. S. Commissioner, Shaffer, who, after hearing the evidence, required each to give bail in $3,000 to answer. The bail had not been given when our paper was put to press.

HUNG.—The Jury in the case of the United States against W. T. Bennett, is said to be hung beyond any prospect of agreement, and will probably have to be discharged.

W. A. Smith, (blow your horn Billy.) candidate for the Senate in Alamance and President of the N. C. R. R., is reported as intending to bring 1,000 negroes from South Carolina to work on his road (just before the election). It is further stated that he has boldly and unblushingly declared that he and his party intended to buy enough votes to carry the election.

THE ILLUSTRATED HUMORIST.—We have received the first copy of a publication bearing the above title. It speaks well for itself on the start, and needs no second scrutiny to raise an innocent laugh. Its illustrations are witty and comical, without slurs or innendoes on persons or associations. The reading throughout, selected and original, is prepared with such care as to show that a master hand is in the editorial chair. The HUMORIST is placed at an exceedingly low price, (50 cents a year,) compared with all other illustrated papers, or even with publications not subjected to this costly item of printing. Handsome premiums are offered for clubs. Published by F. A. Darling, Fayetteville, N. Y. Send for circular and specimen copy.

CONCERT AT MISSES NASH AND KOLLOCK'S SCHOOL.

Going home on Wednesday we found the approaching Concert the theme of every tongue. Generally one feels bound to be disappointed if they have had their expectations wrought to a high pitch. But we can truthfully say we were more than repaid for a long walk in the dark. We reached the old Nash homestead about 8½ P. M. Here, where so often the venerable and beloved Judge Nash dispensed hospitality to his numerous friends, we found a bevy of fair girls who, with their bright eyes, floating curls and gay dresses, were making light and life wherever they flitted.

The brilliant scene carried us far back to our youthful days, and when we saw girls who could no longer be patted on the head and called "candy sweethearts," whose brothers and fathers were young with us, we felt that time has not stood still and has thrown some grains of gold upon the shore to glitter among the black sands of care and sorrow. But if we linger among our retrospective pictures we shall not be able to paint the one before us nor will we have time to tell of the sweet strains brought forth by youth and innocence.

The school room was elegantly decorated with the taste always displayed by Hillsboro' ladies. The stage held two pianos from Charles Stiff, of Baltimore, under the management of Prof. Lamm. The pieces followed each other with regularity and without that weary waiting, that so often spoils exhibitions of this kind.

When all the performances were good, we cannot draw a line; but we will say this much, of the two young ladies who sang, Miss Fields of Macon, and Miss Scales of Rockingham, that their voices were charming. Miss Field's voice is like a bird, she opens her lips and the sound seems to pour out in liquid music. Miss Scales has a different style of voice though it is equally sweet and well managed.

The two pieces for six performers each, all of whom were little girls, gave us great pleasure and seemed to bewitch the audience.

The children—for they were nothing else—(Misses Macay, Graves, Nash, Hamilton, Jones, Webb and Misses Scot, of Graham, Lilly, Edmunds, Graves, Witherspoon and Strudwick) showed they were not only well taught, but well practised. Several pieces followed by Prof. Lamm who is so perfectly at home on the piano as to be happy no where else.

This school is well and deservedly patronized; many of the young ladies left for home on Friday; the mothers and guardians will find they have been taught not to rely so much upon silks, pearls and ermine, as upon sound learning and good manners. Could all schools have a Professor Lamm to preside over the music, Misses Nash and Kollock to guard and protect the manners of our daughters, there would be no more cry of "Womans Rights." Let each girl find her level and seek her pleasure in the bosom of her family. We give below the programme that those who wish may see the character of the music.

PROGRAMME.

When John Robinson's circus was at Mocksville, last week, the Revenue officers detected them in some lottery or gift enterprise for which they had no license. After a good deal of disputing, Deputy Collector Beard succeeding in making them hand over the amount of tax. But after it was handed to the Collector they provoked a personal difficulty with him and attempted to take the money from him. They succeeded in getting a part, having dropped a part of it which was recoved by Mr. Beard. Mr. B. was alone while the manager of the circus was backed by a number of armed men. The perpetrators of this outrage were allowed to depart unmolested.

The Conservatives of Yadkin county have nominated John G. Marler for the House of Representatives.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Amos T. Ackerman of Georgia, was confirmed to-day as Attorney General without objection or debate.

Revenue to-day $805 000.

The Viceroy of India at Bombay and the President of the United States, exchanged to-day congratulatory dispatches upon the completion of telegraphic communication.

SENATE.—Mr Casserly objected to the immediate consideration of Sumner's Cuban resolutions.

Sumner replied that they had been carefully considered in Committee.

Howard thought they might as well vote on the question now.

Casserly persisted in his objection and the matter goes over under the rule.

The Chinese labor bill was postponed on account of the illness of Casserly, who desires to amend it. In the course of the debate the disposition to interfere with Chinese contracts was quite strong.

The tax bill was resumed; no action.

In the House, after a long debate, the apportionment bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee by a vote of 96 to 85. This action is regarded as equivalent to a defeat this session.

The Georgia bill was reported.

Dawes offered a substitute in effect recognizing the fact that Georgia had ratified the several amendments to the Constitution and was entitled to representation, and was authorized to organize militia for her defence.

Other amendments were offered, when objection was made.

Farnsworth and Beck accused Butler of bad faith in only partially obeying the instructions of a majority of the Committee.

It was agreed that the previous question should be seconded at 2 o'clock to-morrow.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The senate after a long debate adopted Nye's amendment, passing Gen. Fremont's name at the head of the incorporators of the Pacific railroad, by a vote of 31 to 6.

The total number of incorporators is now 116.

Hoar's resignation takes effect upon the appointment and qualification of his successor. Ackerman is here; but the impression exists in high quarters that the formalities of proceeding to a qualification will require a month.

The President has signed the Department of Justice bill, which greatly increases the patronage of Attorney General.

Hoar will continue to exercise the functions until Ackerman can qualify, during which time the patronage of Department of Justice will have been suspended.

Advices from London at the State Department report the incarceration of the American Consul at Leith, Scotland, but a misdemeanor in connection with the Boston masquerade.

HOUSE.—Bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to license pleasure yachts, passed.

The Georgia bill was resumed. Schofield argued that the term of Legislature commenced with the fall of the state. If the state was admitted in 1868, the term commenced then. If the State requires this bill for admission, then the Legislature term commences with its passage.

Farnsworth supported his amendment which in effect elects a new Legislature this Fall, contending that when the Legislature commenced work their term of office commenced. He declared that the object of Butler's bill was to illegally extend the legislative term to 1872, and the Governor's term to 1874, thus giving that man Bullock, four years more of oppression and plunder.

Bingham followed and declared that to give Bullock and the Legislature two additional years violated the pledge of Congress, violated the Constitution of the United state, violated the Constitution of Georgia, violated the declared creed of the Republican party.

Garfield is addressing the House in favor of some measure on voting elections next Fall.

Andrew Tarpley, the negro who committed a rape sometime ago upon a little white girl in Alamance county, has been sentenced to be hung on the 14th of August next.

Although the circumstances attending the crime were of a most revolting nature, and have been fully confessed by the accused, yet we think that there is strong probability that Executive clemency will be sought to save the worthless life of this Union Leaguer.

It is reported that a harmless encounter took place on Tuesday, at Lumberton, between J. E. Eldridge, the Sheriff of the county and the Mayor of the town. Sweet officers of the law, ain't they? Pretty example to set.

Crowds of people congregate on the streets in Wilmington to witness the modus operandi of entrapping poor dorgs.

The Baptist Sunday School in Goldsboro' will shortly indulge in an excursion.

Special Notices.

DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are invaluable to all who suffer from Bilious and Liver Complaints, Sick Headache, Loss of Appetite, Drowsiness, Giddiness, and especially Indigestion, which prevails to an alarming extent in this country at the present day. By the judicious use of TUTT'S LIVER PILLS the bowels may be kept perpetually in a natural condition of good health. They do not act as merely temporary relief; they keep the human system in a state of sound and vigorous health, by easily and almost imperceptibly cleansing it of all impurities. It braces and invigorates both the physical and mental organization.

The Great Family Medicine of the Age.

THIRTY YEARS

Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in curing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a PAIN KILLER its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.

THIRTY YEARS is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the PAIN KILLER is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a CURE and EFFECTIVE remedy. Sold by all Druggists.

PRICE 25 cts, 50 cts, AND $1.00 PER BOTTLE.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863 the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One Hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

A PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Governor of North Carolina.

Executive Department of N. C.,
RALEIGH, June 6th, 1870.

WHEREAS, Official information has been received at this Department, that a Vacancy exists in the representation from this state in the Congress of the United States, caused by the resignation of Hon. JOHN T. DEWEESE, a member of the House of Representatives from the 4th Congressional District, composed of the counties of Wake, Franklin, Granville, Orange, Johnston, Nash, Chatham and Warren,

Now therefore, I, W. W. HOLDEN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority vested in me by law, do issue this Proclamation, ordering an election to be held in the various counties composing said District, on the first Thursday in August next, for the purpose of filling the unexpired term of the said JOHN T. DEWEESE. It is further ordered, that said election be held in all respects in accordance with existing laws.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this 6th day [L. S.] of June, 1870, and in the 94th year of our Independence.

W. W. HOLDEN, Governor.

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the Highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Plies it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at MRS TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA.

Open May 15th, 1870.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Painter. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "ROCKBRIDGE ALUM." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.

Dress Making.

IN ALL ITS DEPARTMENTS,

MRS. SHELBURN, AT MRS. THOMPSON'S Old Stand, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C. Having secured the services of the best Dress Makers in each branch of the business besides facilities for presenting the latest and most reliable styles, can assure the ladies generally that they may rely on having their materials made in the best manner and the fitting always graceful and accurate.

Wedding and Traveling Dresses, and other transient work done at very short notice.

Ladies who wish to make up their own materials would do well to have their Dresses and Waists cut and basted.

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and ascertain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
